

CRIME ON THE CANALS

FRIENDS OF
TOM BROWN'S SCHOOL MUSEUM

Invite you to a talk
Wednesday 28 June 2017
7.30pm

Uffington Village Hall

One Hour followed by Q & A

Anthony Poulton-Smith Author & Journalist

An author of seventy-four published works and many more as a ghost-writer, Anthony has given more than three hundred talks over the years, being invited back many times

'Crime on the Canals' looks at over two centuries of murder, theft, criminal damage, health and safety, and even truancy. Until the coming of the railways these waterways were the main arterial routes in the country and, as such, proved a temptation to every rogue, rotter and ne'er-do-well. Not just the macabre here but also the mysterious the hapless and more than a little humour.

TICKETS

ADULT - £5.00 CHILDREN (10-16) - £1.00

Available from Karen Pilcher
01367 820978 OR uffingtonmuseum@gmail.com

01367 820978 OR uffingtonmuseum@gmail.com
Available from Karen Pilcher

ADULT - £5.00 CHILDREN (10-16) - £1.00